

DIBELS Training

Dynamic Indicators of Basic Early Literacy Skills

Hosted By:

Park West School Division

Full-Day Workshop with Dr. David Fainstein

"Bridging the crucial gap between academic assessment and daily classroom instruction"

Park West School Division we will be hosting a workshop with Dr. David Fainstein via Livestream on October 2, 2025. The workshop includes background information, direct training on DIBELS measures, and how to link early literacy assessment to instruction. The DIBELS training is an active learning opportunity to become familiar with early reading screening and its use for classroom instruction to improve literacy outcomes for students.

October 2, 2025

9:00 – 3:30

zoom

Cost - $75 per participant

Registration LINK Please click to fill out google form. Zoom link will be emailed to participants.

Dr. David Fainstein, PhD, NCSP

David earned his doctoral degree from the University of Oregon and joined the Seattle University faculty in 2022 to continue his teaching and research lines on supporting students, educators, and administrators. His experience with school-based practice includes working as a special education assistant and school psychologist in British Columbia, Canada, as well as serving as an interventionist and data coach in Oregon. He completed his APPIC doctoral internship at the British Columbia School of Applied Psychology program, training in clinical and school settings.

Register
Now

Click to Register

For more information contact:

Bonnie Kiliwnik

Director of Student Services

Park West School Division

204-847-0113

bkiliwnik@pwsd.ca